About GAPLA

GAPLA is a non-profit association registered in Germany with head offices in Frankfurt and Sydney as well as offices in Wellington and Vienna. With over 120 members, GAPLA is represented in all major cities in Australia, New Zealand, Germany and Austria.

Our members represent many different facets of the legal profession; some are lawyers in private practice, while others are academics, work as in-house counsel or are just starting out. GAPLA promotes the exchange of ideas and information between its members and offers regular opportunities to meet colleagues from the other side of the world included lawyers from New Zealand, the South Pacific Islands as well as other European Member States.

If you would like to become a member, please visit our website at <https://www.dapjv.com/homepage/> and send your membership application to cgenuttis@schweizer.com.au.

About GABWA

The German-Australian Business Women Association was founded in 2015 by Katrin Reichert with the purpose to connect German and German-speaking business women in Australia. This organization is based on a linkedin group with meanwhile 600 members Australian-wide. With chapters in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, and Newcastle and 10 volunteer staff, GABWA provides regular Business and Network events. The costs for those events are either sponsored by companies or are borne by the participants. Within the linkedin group and at GABWA events, members can exchange business experiences and build personal relationships. These are our guidelines: GABWA provides a network for German or German-speaking Business Women in Australia. GABWA provides a platform to exchange experiences for 'Women in the Australian Business and Industry'. GABWA-Women support each other in their career planning and career development. GABWA-Women learn from one another and care for each other.
